

Preparing for the

DAYS OF AWE

SELICHOT

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 4

HAVDALAH: 8:45 PM
TALMUD STUDY: 9:15–11:30 PM
SELICHOT SERVICE: 11:45 PM

Neveh Shalom invites the Portland Jewish community to join us for an evening of prayer, study, song & refreshment as we prepare our hearts and minds for the Days of Awe.***

- Experience High Holy Day themes and melodies in the Selichot service.
- Singing will be led by Cantor Debbie Bletstein
- Join us for our official dedication of the 72-volume Schottenstein Talmud generously donated by 22 congregants during this past year to our library.
- Learn with Rabbis Stampfer, Isaak, and Greenstein, along with Mel Berwin and Gary Liberman as they teach some of their favorite excerpts and stories from the Talmud.
- Nosh & schmooze as we enjoy desserts with coffee and tea.

We'll conclude the evening with a brief Selichot service after which we will wish each other a Shanah Tovah u'Metukah, a good and sweet new year.

***Due to Labor Day weekend, there will be no Oregon Board of Rabbis Selichot service at the MJCC this year.

Congregation Neveh Shalom, 2900 SW Peaceful Lane, 97239, 503.246.8831, www.nevehshalom.org